TOP 40 TIPS: GET READY FOR YOUR ROAD TRIP

A well-planned road trip can be a great adventure but good preparation can ensure you don't have any unplanned mishaps along the way. Make sure you prepare a pre-trip checklist specific to your own RV and vehicle. We've created one to help you get you started with your pre-trip preparation. It is also advisable to have the caravan serviced by a specialist prior to the journey and there are many such specialists appearing on these pages.

CAR & CARAVAN SAFETY

- Check the functionality of all critical internal features, including fridge, cooktop, water pump, air conditioner and toilet.
- Antenna in the travel position
- No loose items in cupboards or on shelves
- Fire extinguisher fitted in car and caravan is recommended
- First aid kit
- Check the smoke alarm
- How long since your gas cylinders and LPG regulators were checked? Ensure your gas cylinders are completely off and well secured before driving
- Is it time to flush out water tanks and check for mould?
- How are your brakes? Do a small test drive before your big trip and leave time for remedial work if required
- Wheel bearings adjusted and serviced
- Wheel nuts tight

- Check the condition of your tyres, including spares, and that the tyre pressure matches your load
- Does your handbrake need adjustment?
- What is the status of safety chains and the jockey wheel?

BEFORE MOVING OFF

- Jockey wheel removed or secured
- Check indicators, reversing and brake lights
- Gas turned off
- Doors and hatches closed and locked inside and out
- Jacks raised or safety stands removed - Wheel chocks removed
- Electrical connection between car and van secured
- 240V electrical lead disconnected
- Steps raised
- Towing aid correctly fitted
- Safety chains secured
- Mirrors safely secured, clean and adjusted properly

TOOLS & EQUIPMENT

- Fan belt and radiator hoses
- Engine oil and coolant
- Spare wheel and tyre to suit caravan
- Insulating tape, gaffer tape
- Electrical wire
- Cable ties
- Assortment of tools to suit sizes on car and caravan
- Tyre levers and jack to suit car and caravan
- Wheel brace to suit wheel nuts on car and caravan
- Tyre gauge and wheel chocks
- Blocks for placing under corner stabilisers on soft ground or unlevel sites
- Take the tools required to fit the spares you have onboard for the trip
- It is essential that all gas lines, connections, appliances and electrical fittings be checked regularly
- Before driving off, walk around the caravan or RV for one last safety check to ensure all is secure

ADELAIDE HILLS

📍 See detailed Map 7 on page 69

Welcome to the Adelaide Hills, where each distinct season provides another reason to visit – from the romantic morning mists and cosy fires of winter, profusion of garden colour in spring, cool shady beer gardens and fruit picking in summer, to the glorious leaves of autumn.

Cuddle a koala, meet winemakers, enjoy a craft beer or cider, pick your own fruit, come for one of the many events and markets, or enjoy a lunch that lasts all afternoon. While regional gateways are just a 20 minute drive from Adelaide, be sure to explore further afield and take your time to discover the diverse landscape, where corduroy vineyards intersect with rambling forest and steep ridges yield to rolling hills and orchards. Fine studios and galleries abound, from the immense cultural legacy of Sir Hans Heysen's home, 'The Cedars', to grassroots community spaces. Over 50 cellar doors are spread across the Hills, from tiny solo acts to slick, contemporary venues.

Cheese and chocolate, craft beer and cider, gin, and even bread and jam are made the old-fashioned way – with hands and heart. You can satisfy your appetite in a country pub or bakery, take a gourmet approach in a sophisticated restaurant, or picnic with local produce fresh from the farm gate or roadside stall.

TOP TIPS FOR BUYING A RECREATIONAL VEHICLE

There is a recreational vehicle to suit nearly everyone's needs and budget, from small tent trailers to motorhomes and everything in between. The key is determining your needs and why you are buying a recreational vehicle.

1. Do you want to tow it or drive it?

If you are keen on towing, can your current car safely and legally tow? And if so, how much can you tow? Knowing this will enable you to focus on what type of product you can buy (e.g. caravan or camper trailer). If you just want to jump in and drive, a campervan or motorhome may be the way to go!

2. Consider the type of trips you want to take

Are you looking to head off with the family for weekend getaways or are you planning to do a lap of Australia? Do you want to be able to take it off-road? Will you have access to power and water? Do you want to bring a boat as well?

3. Make sure you're dealing with a reputable dealer/manufacturer.

Before buying, head to an industry-run Caravan & Camping Show. RVs displayed at industry run Caravan Shows are subjected to random compliance reviews which can provide a higher level of confidence for consumers. You can also look for the RVMAP Accreditation Key as you shop around.

4. Test drive or test tow!

Once you have narrowed down your choices, take some options for a spin and see how they feel! If you've never towed a caravan/camper or driven a motorhome/campervan before, you might consider renting one in advance so it's not an altogether new experience.

It's important to choose a recreational vehicle you feel safe, confident and comfortable driving or towing - and one that you can see yourself enjoying for years to come. For more information visit www.letsgocaravanandcamping.com.au/caravan-buying-tips

For when you want to see the outback, your way.

TOWING & COMMUNICATIONS

STAY SAFE ON THE ROAD

Towing Tips

Towing a caravan or camper and hitting the open road can be one of life's great joys. The roads of Australia are busier and busier and, as a road user who intends to tow a camper/caravan, it is your responsibility to know how to do so safely.

Towing safely is not limited to when you are on the road, your pre-planning is just as important. This can include:

- Understanding your vehicle's towing capacity
- The weight/size of your caravan/RV
- How to load it appropriately with all the belongings you intend to bring with you.

As a starting point to your road trip adventures, we recommend:

- Book into an official towing course
- Check out The Caravan Towing Guide.

The Caravan Towing Guide contains a wealth of technical & compliance information on all things towing. It is a free online resource that also includes a free downloadable PDF copy.

Visit www.caravantowingguide.com.au to access this free resource.

Communications Tips

When venturing into the regions of South Australia, remember that you don't need to go off road to lose mobile reception.

In the event of an unforeseen happening, or if you want to keep in touch with friends and family, it is important to consider having communication equipment that will give you security in remote locations.

Some options to consider are:

- Mobile signal boosters. A mobile signal booster is a compact, hidden away system that acts like a mobile phone tower in your car. It can amplify your signal, taking the SOS signal from ½ to 2 bars of solid stable signal.

- UHF radio. The latest UHF radios (walkie talkie) are compact and easy to use, and you don't even need a bull bar for the antenna. Modern radios also have filters to block out those undesirable conversations from children's ears.
- Satellite phones. The ultimate safety tool, a satellite phone is your link to civilisation. There are a variety of options on the market. Some phones will only use one satellite while others will have 66 satellites in their constellation. These may be available for hire when travelling for a short period.

Speak to a local professional for further information and go explore Australia!

NATIONAL PARKS & RESERVOIRS

SA's Reservoirs

Home to beautiful landscapes and unique flora and fauna, South Australia's reservoir reserves combine adventure, fun and environmental preservation for wonderful nature-based experiences. There are now 9 reservoir reserves open for you to enjoy and explore, offering a mix of land and water-based recreational activities such as walking, cycling, fishing and kayaking. Remember Reservoirs are for day trips only - no overnight stays. Here are a few to check out:

Happy Valley

Located in the heart of Adelaide's southern suburbs, it offers the perfect escape for a day of family fun with 20 kilometres of trails to explore and picnic areas with shelters overlooking the water.

Myponga

Nestled in the township of Myponga on the stunning Fleurieu Peninsula, this picturesque reservoir is best experienced while paddling through its 250 hectares of water and dropping a line in for that catch of the day.

Warren

Lace up those hiking boots! A short drive east of Williamstown in the Barossa Valley, Warren Reservoir Reserve combines land and water-based activities with an interconnected trail taking you through Mount Crawford Forest and on to Para Wirra Conservation Park.

SA's National Parks

There are over 360 national parks and reserves in South Australia, here a few to check out:

Cleland Wildlife Park

With over 130 species of native animals including koalas, kangaroos, wallabies, potoroos, emus, reptiles and birds, Cleland Wildlife Park allows you to get close to some of South Australia's most iconic wildlife. Nestled within a natural bush setting with very few animal enclosures, this park offers an up-close and immersive nature experience like no other.

Ikara-Flinders Ranges National Park

This ancient and rugged landscape includes the vast amphitheatre of mountains that is Wilpena Pound and the Heysen Range, Brachina and Bunyerroo gorges. One of South Australia's most iconic destinations, it's popular in the cooler months from April to October. There are new visitor facilities at Arkaroo Rock.

Dhilba Guuranda - Innes National Park

The rugged coast of Dhilba Guuranda - Innes National Park offers plenty of white sandy coves nestled amongst cliffs to explore and is a paradise for beach-lovers during spring and summer. Anglers can find many great spots, so check out the YP Fishing Guide.

Naracoorte Caves

These World Heritage-listed caves are one of the world's most important fossil sites. Take a self-guided cave tour, join a guided experience amid magnificent speleothem chambers or enjoy an adventure caving tour. The caves stay at a constant 17 degrees centigrade year-round. Stop in at the café or enjoy the BBQ facilities and new nature playground.

KANGAROO ISLAND

Kangaroo Island is one of the world's great wilderness destinations.

Australia's third largest island stretches 155 kilometres long and 55 kilometres wide. The coastline is big enough to bestow a real sense of peace, wild enough to harbour a few secrets and small enough to tour.

You can quietly 'go bush' and see native Australian animals and birds as they were meant to be - in the wild.

Kangaroo Island offers a wealth of inspiring nature-based experiences. Flinders Chase National Park is the place to watch the New Zealand Fur Seals at Admirals Arch, marvel at the sculptures of Remarkable Rocks, observe rare Australian Sea Lions at Seal Bay, and make a date to meet the Little Penguins as they emerge from the sea at the end of their working day. 'KI' as the locals call it, is big and surprisingly diverse, so you will always find somewhere to call your own to enjoy a little quiet time and let nature soothe your spirit. If you are an experience seeker, there is the opportunity to snorkel, fish, surf, kayak or quad bike.

Kangaroo Island has a thriving food and wine industry, so get ready to enjoy freshwater crayfish (Marron), lobsters, King George Whiting, local oysters and the world's finest Ligurian Bee honey. The wine industry is only young, but we're ripening to perfection, so call in to one of the many cellar doors for a drop. To get to the island, you can choose to fly, drive or take a coach to Cape Jervis and connect with the regular passenger and car ferry: www.tourkangarooisland.com.au.

THE BEST OF SA'S PRODUCE

Hart Of The Barossa
SATC, Duy Dash

Local Food & Beverage

When it comes to food and drink, South Australia truly is the land of legends. From culture-rich Adelaide to the lush Adelaide Hills, or the bountiful Barossa to the Eyre Peninsula, our state has been named a Great Wine Capital of the World and is home to an all-star cast of world-famous chefs, winemakers and producers.

Adelaide is a culinary playground with a smorgasbord of cuisines on offer. Steeped in history and drenched in class, wash it all down at booming city bars, regional distilleries, cellar doors and wineries. The metropolitan coastal strip from Semaphore to Seacliff is a must in summer, while the beautiful Adelaide Hills with its reputation as a cool climate wine region is a destination at any time of year. The Hills, along with the Fleurieu Peninsula, are studded with cafes, restaurants, wineries and breweries.

When you think of Eyre & Yorke Peninsulas, think seafood! Port Lincoln is Australia's seafood capital and it is home to the biggest commercial fishing fleet. Whether is fresh whiting, export quality tuna, abalone or fresh oysters, the seafood aficionados will be in heaven!

For lovers of wine, the Adelaide Hills, Barossa, Clare, McLaren Vale and Coonawarra regions provide premium wine and relaxing and picturesque cellar door experiences. A number of smaller and lesser known wineries and breweries have emerged in recent years, so take the time to explore these on your journey around SA. The Limestone Coast region boasts a number of wine regions, with over 40 cellar doors including Coonawarra's hidden gem, Brands Laira.

On your journey around SA you will find many perfect places for long indulgent lunches, many overlooking the beautiful regional landscape. There's no doubt that good food can make a good holiday great, so enjoy what SA has to offer. Bon Appétit!

Coorong National Park, Cassandra Missen

MURRAY RIVER, LAKES & COORONG

Come and play outdoors. Whether it's paddling or water skiing, cycling or walking, racing cars or four wheel driving... this region has it all.

Famous for iconic houseboat holidays and paddle steamer history, but there's more on offer. The waterways begin in the lower Murray near Swan Reach. This stretch boasts some of the River's widest expanses and most spectacular ochre cliff faces. From here follow the Mighty Murray Way towards Mannum and Murray Bridge. With large riverfront recreation areas and restaurants, these towns are perfect for soaking up river life. Float south towards the Lower Lakes, Murray Mouth and Coorong - one of the most unique environments in the world - made famous again by the 2019 film remake of Storm Boy.

Along the way, you'll go through Tailem Bend, now firmly on the map thanks to The Bend Motorsport Park. Further south, you'll start catching glimpses of Lake's Albert and Alexandrina, as they begin to open up to the Coorong National Park.

The laid-back town of Meningie set right on Lake Albert is known for spectacular sunsets and fresh seafood.

On the other side of the Coorong, you can travel through Lake Alexandrina towns (such as Milang and Langhorne Creek) on your way to Goolwa, this is where the River Murray meets the sea.

YORKE PENINSULA

📍 See detailed Map 4 on page 66

Lazy days under the beach umbrella.
Cold beers around a sizzling barbecue.
Stunning sunsets over boat-filled bays.
Postcard perfect beaches...

Beginning just 90 minutes from Adelaide, Yorke Peninsula is one of South Australia's most relaxed holiday regions, with long secluded beaches, great fishing, fascinating history and vast expanses of untouched nature.

If you find relaxing with a fishing line is your idea of heaven, there are plenty of historic jetties to explore and the two gulfs provide some of the best catches in the State.

Step back in time and experience the unique history and culture Yorke Peninsula has to offer. History buffs can learn about the rich mining and farming heritage through the many museums and historic walks. Dhilba Guuranda-Innes National Park is one of the most famous wildlife havens in the State, with 9200ha of untouched flora and fauna and some spectacular rugged cliffs. This is where you can experience bush walking, swimming, surfing, snorkelling, bird watching, diving and sometimes even whale watching. Yorke Peninsula is the perfect escape!

LIVING IN RESIDENTIAL PARKS & LIFESTYLE VILLAGES

A Residential Park or Lifestyle Village is a place where independent people aged 50+ can live in a secure and vibrant residential environment.

In addition to providing housing, Residential Parks and Lifestyle Villages typically offer homeowners private access to a range of resort-style facilities such as swimming pools, recreation rooms, landscaped grounds, BBQs and communal entertaining areas. Many will have activity programs and social clubs that will support an active and connected way of life.

In these communities, you buy and own your home and have a secure lease on the land on which your home sits. Unlike retirement villages, these communities are typically younger and do not contain the support services needed by people of advanced age.

When assessing if this type of living is right for you make sure you understand the following key areas:

- Is there a weekly site fee and what does it cover?
- How does buying a home in the community work?
- Can you access government concessions like rental assistance?
- Are there any costs payable when living in the community?
- What facilities accompany home ownership?
- Are pets allowed?
- What legislative protection is available?
- What homes are available and what is included in these homes?
- Are there any rules in the community?

DISCOVER THE BENEFITS OF DOWNSIZING TO LIVE IN A LIFESTYLE VILLAGE

Contact the Residential Park and Lifestyle Village advertisers and listings in this feature for more information on how to make your new housing and lifestyle choice a reality.

Make a fresh start

Reinvent yourself for the next phase of your life by downsizing to live in a Residential Park or Lifestyle Village. These Villages provide an opportunity to make a fresh start and enjoy a better future in a brand new or established home. Whether it's because of a significant life change, or simply because there's an empty nest feeling in the existing home, you can make a new beginning.

Free up cash for your future

Downsizing to a more affordable home in a Lifestyle Village can provide the opportunity to free up money for your future. Use the proceeds to pay cash for your new home with the balance used to pay off debts, supplement your retirement income, boost your super, or take a dream holiday.

Enjoy a sea or tree change

Living in a Lifestyle Village may provide the opportunity to leave behind the hustle and bustle of suburban life. Escape and enjoy the friendliness of semi-rural and regional communities. With a full range of downsizing solutions to be found in beautiful locations in South Australia, you can really take your pick from the best, most relaxed, or adventurous locations.

More time, less stress

Downsizing to live in a Lifestyle village means fewer things you need to manage. It reduces the cost, time and stress that come with looking after a larger home and garden. With less time spent on cleaning and maintaining your home, you will be surprised by how much more time you will have to do the things you love.

Enjoy a brand new or established home

Downsizing your home doesn't mean you have to downgrade your living environment. Often a decision to move to a Lifestyle Village is a move to a brand new and more practical home. 'Brand new' doesn't mean you have to leave the things you love behind - it's just a time to blend old and new to create your perfect home.

Feel more safe and secure

Our urban neighbourhoods no longer have that sense of community that made us feel connected and safe in the past. Living in a Lifestyle Village can often provide the benefit of a safe and secure environment. Many villages are age-specific and feature gated entries and live-in managers, who will keep an eye on things when you are away. These communities offer peace of mind for those who live alone or travel for extended periods.
